

FELPHAM PARISH COUNCIL

Platinum Blue Plaque Heritage Trail Agreement

Background

Some properties within the village have had famous residents in the past and blue plaques have been placed to commemorate such residents, assisted with the cooperation of the householder's permission.

Agreement between the householder and Felpham Parish Council

Address:

We, the current owners of the property mentioned above, agree to the installation of a blue plaque upon our property in line with the Parish Council's Blue Plaques Policy.

We have seen and agree with the proposed size and design for the plaque:

We agree the diameter and material of the plaque:

We will agree with the council the location for the plaque.

We agree to maintain the plaque to the best of our abilities.

We will only remove the blue plaque with the written agreement of the Parish Council.

The Council will only replace the blue plaque at its own expense as long as the householder can show all maintenance has been carried out previously in a timely and effective manner.

Should we decide to sell the property, we will inform the council so it may arrange for a replacement agreement with the new owners.
